

Lithography, size 34,5x48 cm. 200 copies printed. On the back of each one, the following description:

Surf Wind (Tempera on canvas 40x50)

Harpy. Collective imagination has chosen her as synonym with evil and ugliness, but for Ambra she represents the evolution of highest thought.

This painting is trying to depict the Universal Natural Law that keeps the balance between matter and non-matter.

Ambra's unusual sense of colour and her skilful use of paints have infused Dignity, Justice and Temperance into the figure hovering over the lively waters agitated by the "Surf Wind".

It's the very Vital Energy that takes shape and generates the right balance between instinct and reason.

The Harpy holds in her hands a crystal sphere, symbolising the rarity and purity of Enlightened Thought, to be intimately protected and guarded.